Re: Perteet establishes South Sound presence with new hire, Erik Martin

Everett, Wash: April 18, 2023 – Perteet Inc.

Perteet Inc. welcomes Erik Martin as the director of South Sound services. Erik brings with him more than 17 years at Pierce and Lewis Counties, most recently in the role of Lewis County manager. He has also worked in consulting as an engineer, project manager, and principal. This move will expand Perteet’s multidisciplinary services to all of southwestern Washington.

Erik has expertise in a diverse range of areas, including transportation, planning and environmental projects, basin-wide flooding solutions, community development, and infrastructure improvements. With a proven track record of success in delivering effective solutions, Erik’s versatile skill set and strategic thinking make him a valuable asset to any team.

“Erik has an incredible depth of knowledge when it comes to understanding the current inner workings of public agencies and the challenges they face,” said Crystal Donner, Perteet’s CEO and President. “These challenges are not what they were even three years ago and his insights and innovative approach will help us serve our South Sound clients and grow the breadth of our services.”

Perteet Inc. is an award-winning engineering consulting firm dedicated to enhancing the quality of life in the communities we live. 100% employee owned, Perteet partners with local, county, and government agencies to keep the cities and towns of Washington State moving forward. Since 1988, our talented and experienced team has been committed to keeping people safe, traffic moving, and communities thriving.
